Youth Gathering

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

With the new year comes new opportunities, new challenges, new joys, new frustrations, and new worries. With all of this newness, there will also be change and change tends to make us fearful. Change has a way of making us dread the future. We dig our heels in, refuse to move forward all because we are afraid of things being different. We fear how the change will affect our lives, alter our future, disturb the comfort we find in old routines and familiar habits.

What changes will the new year bring for you? Will you or someone you love be fighting a life-threatening illness? Will you be searching for new employment? Will you be facing a difficult decision or a painful transition? Will you be grieving the death of a loved one? How will your family change? Will there be a new baby? Will a child be leaving home or returning home? Will you celebrate a marriage, a graduation, or another significant milestone in life?

Like all our days, the future - our future together at Trinity and our individual futures - are all held in God's hands. And God has great things in store for us! These great things lie hidden in the future - a future unknown to us, but known to God. We must move forward in order for God to reveal these great things to us. So take a cautious step forward, move into the future with confidence and boldness. Know that God is with you, that God will love you, bless you, heal you, sustain you, and provide for you. As a reminder of your willingness to follow God's leading into the future, you might consider using these words in your daily prayers: "My fear of tomorrow I relinquish to God's love for me today."

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

ADULT MISSION TRIP

Greetings and Peace, Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

Luke shares with us in Acts 20:35, "In everything I showed you that by working hard in this manner you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, "It is more blessed to give than receive."

In the spring of 2015, as a part of fulfilling my internship here at Trinity Lutheran, I will be leading a mission trip to Crisfield, Maryland. This town still suffers from the effects of hurricane Sandy. The group will be working to restore people's homes and in a sense helping to return their life to some degree of normalcy. Situated at the end of a road and on the waters of Chesapeake Bay, Crisfield was deemed the "Forgotten Town." It is my desire to reinforce to the people of Crisfield, with your help, that God has not forgotten them. Crisfield, once known as the "Seafood Capital of the World," is the poorest town in Somerset County, which is the poorest county in Maryland. It is our plan to travel, using personal vehicles, to Crisfield on Sunday, May 10 and return on May 16. A facility is provided in Crisfield that will house us during our stay and can hold up to 25 people. It is also in our preliminary plans to take one day, Friday May 15, as a free day and go on an adventure. The cost of the trip is $150.00 per person and covers all expenses other than meals up and back, and any other monies spent for personal use.

Registration is currently open, and you can do so by contacting the Church Office. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at the church office or by email at rbkehl@trinitylutheran.ws. I look forward to working with you on this journey of Christ's love.

God's peace,
Vicar Rusty Kehl
