Dear Members of the Trinity family,

In God I trust, I will not be afraid. Psalm 56:3

A couple of weeks ago Mark and I moved our daughter Elizabeth to Furman to begin her college career. We have received lots of good advice about the joys and challenges of this transition. We realize how lucky we are to have her so close. In spite of all the help and encouragement, this transition has been difficult. While I am proud of our daughter and the good things she is doing at Furman, Mark and I miss her terribly!

Leaving Elizabeth at Furman reminded me of her first day of elementary school when it took all the resolve I had to entrust her to the teacher's care and keeping. Would that teacher understand how precious Elizabeth was to us? Would that school recognize how dear and special she was? As it turns out, that was the first step in letting go. It is hard to accept how little influence I now have on my daughter's life. She is free to make decisions on her own, free to choose her own friends, free to decide how to spend her time. I am hoping and praying that she will remember who she is - a beloved, precious, baptized child of God.

God is teaching me so much in these days of transition and transformation. As I loosen my grip on Elizabeth's life, I am confident that God is tightening God's grip on her life. She (and all of our precious children) are being held safely and securely in the hands of God. Regardless of the changes, transitions, and struggles that you are facing in your life, there is no need to be afraid. The future is being held in the hands of a loving, gracious, merciful God. We can abandon our fear and worry, move forward with faith and confidence, trusting that our lives and our futures are held in God's loving care.

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

COUNCIL NOTES

At the August meeting of the Congregation Council, the council

- learned that expenses for July were $7,600 less than projected;
- approved the unanimous recommendation of the Worship Committee to eliminate the 7:45 am worship service beginning in October (9:00 and 11:15 am services will continue); and
- appointed Melissa Kolb, Terry Morgan, Greg Pfister, Bill Renninger, Jerry Ring, Kerry Sease, and Philip Wessinger (chair) to serve on the Internship Committee for the 2016/2017 program year.

CHANGES IN SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP

While a handful of Trinity's dear and faithful members continue to worship on Sunday morning at the 7:45 am service, the attendance at this service has declined over the past several years making it difficult to sustain this service. After hours of thought, study, prayer, and consideration, the Congregation Council, at the unanimous recommendation of the Worship Committee, made the decision to eliminate the 7:45 am Sunday morning service beginning on October 2. The Sunday morning worship schedule which includes Holy Communion at 9:00 and 11:15 am with Sunday School at 10:00 am will continue. Pastor Crowell, Pastor Parham, and the Worship Committee are working to find a time, day of the week, and plan for a third worship service. Possibilities will be explored over the next months.

LOYALTY SUNDAY

On Sunday, September 25, members of Trinity Church will have an opportunity during worship to make their ministry commitments for 2017. Commitment packets, which include time and talent sheets as well as financial commitment cards, are being distributed at the Stewardship Event, Let Your Light Shine. All others will be mailed on Monday, September 19. Everyone is encouraged to complete these materials and bring them to worship on September 25.

WEDNESDAY EVENING WORSHIP

On the second Wednesday of each month beginning in September and extending through December, the congregation is invited to gather for worship in the Multipurpose Room at 6:15 pm. This contemplative service is a peaceful experience that includes silence and singing, light and darkness, stillness and movement and culminates with prayer around the cross and the lighting of candles. Worship themes and dates are as follows:

- Wednesday, September 14 at 6:15 - Praying for Healing
- Wednesday, October 12 at 6:15 - Praying for Peace
- Wednesday, November 9 at 6:15 - Praying for Relationships
- Wednesday, December 14 at 6:15 - Praying for Compassion

Members of the congregation and friends are encouraged to participate in this service.
