Gifts of Hope: A Season of Giving

Gifts of Hope is an alternative gift-giving program in the SC Synod (ELCA). This Christmas give gifts to family and friends that give hope to others. The gifts are represented by institutions and Social Ministry Organizations affiliated with the SC Synod and South Carolina companion foreign synods. Every penny of Gifts of Hope will be distributed to help the poor, educate students from elementary school to seminary and support the elderly here and throughout the world.

The Outreach Committee will be offering an opportunity to participate in Gifts of Hope. Beginning Sunday, November 22 and continuing through December 20, Gifts of Hope may be purchased at Trinity each Sunday morning in the Multipurpose Room during Coffee and Conversation. The Gifts of Hope catalog will offer 38 gift choices ranging in price from $10 to $130. Included are choices such as new shoes or a backpack for impoverished children, transportation for a homeless Veteran, or food for a refugee family. For each gift that is purchased, a gift card and an insert describing the chosen gift will be received. These may be sent to a friend or family member. To review the gifts that may be purchased, please visit www.GiftsOfHopeSC.org. For more information, please contact Karla Koon at 609-6617 or kwkoon11@gmail.com or Cheryl Spiers at 233-1500 or spiershome@charter.net.

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

Since returning from the ELCA youth gathering in Detroit this summer, our youth have been eager and excited to engage in our life together at Trinity in new, significant, and meaningful ways. On Sunday, November 8 our youth will have a unique opportunity to do this. In a collaborative effort, our pastoral and program staff composed of Pastor Parham, Vicar Lineberger, Amy Brown, Mandi Whitley, and myself have been working faithfully to prepare our youth to lead worship on this day. The youth will be reading lessons, leading the children’s sermon, serving as cantors, preaching the sermon, assisting with communion, participating in a skit, providing special music, offering prayers, serving as greeters, ushers, and acolytes, as well as teaching our congregation a new setting of the liturgy. This will be a tremendous opportunity for our youth to experience first-hand the joy, meaning, and responsibility of leading corporate worship.

The youth at Trinity are amazing! Their gifts, passions, talents, abilities, and interests are diverse and exceptional. They attend a number of schools across Greenville county and are involved in countless musical ensembles, sports teams, school and community activities, volunteer service opportunities, and after school jobs. Our youth routinely make a huge commitment of time and energy to be in fellowship together at Trinity and continue to strive to be a strong, cohesive, mutually supportive part of the body of Christ at Trinity. They are thrilled to have this opportunity to serve and lead and are eager for your support, affirmation, and encouragement. It is my hope and prayer that you will make every effort to worship with us on this Sunday morning. I am confident that the youth at Trinity will be a blessing to you!

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

Adults meet in the Multipurpose Room for coffee and conversation, announcements and prayer, before classes begin.

There are three adult classes being offered in November. The course Blessed Earth: Hope for Humanity will meet in the Multipurpose Room to explore how we can live a spiritually sustainable lifestyle. The Bible study Unusual Names will meet in Rooms 12 and 13, and will study four of the I am names of Jesus that are found in the gospel of John. The third class, What Does It Mean To Be a Lutheran? meets in Room 11 and examines the Christian faith from a Lutheran perspective.

Christmas Party and Ornament Exchange

Adults of all ages will gather at 7:00 pm on Friday, December 11, for a Christmas Party and Ornament Exchange at the home of Chris and Lara Wannemacher, 19 Charlibury St. Participants are asked to bring an appetizer or dessert to share with the group and a wrapped Christmas tree ornament for the gift exchange. Soft drinks will be provided. Reservations can be made by calling the Church Office by Wednesday, December 9.
