Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

I can write with some level of certainty that I have never needed Easter and the good news of resurrection as much as I need it this year. The challenges of living with the ever-present threat of the coronavirus is quite enough without adding the hype and sensationalism of television news programs. My heart and soul longs for Easter Sunday and the good news of God's love revealed in the resurrection to new life. Please join our community of faith tomorrow morning at 10:00 am for an online service. You will want to login by 9:55 in order not to miss a single moment of Pastor Parham's magnificent prelude. You may access the service by visiting www.trinitylutheran.ws and clicking on the online worship icon or by visiting the Trinity Facebook page. You do not need to be a Facebook user to access the service.

In order to prepare for worship, I invite you to visit the website ahead of time to print a copy of the worship bulletin as well as copies of the materials for children. These materials are available near the bottom of the homepage in the "News@Trinity" section. If you wish to save paper, you might consider following along with the service by accessing the bulletin on a second electronic device. Once again we will be sharing the peace during the service by texting messages of peace to one another. Please be sure to have your cell phones with you at worship. In order to be prepared for the Affirmation of Baptism that will take place at the beginning of the service, you will want to have a small bowl of water with you.

Thank you for all the ways you are supporting Trinity during these times. Your love, prayers, words of support, and financial contributions are greatly appreciated. If you are able to support Trinity's ministry with an offering, we would be most grateful for your gift. Online giving is available by texting TLCGIVE to 73256, or by following the link on the homepage of the website. Offering may also be mailed to the Church Office.

May the good news of God's love revealed to the whole world at Easter strengthen and sustain your hearts, bodies, souls, and spirits.

Love and Easter Blessings,
Pastor Susan Crowell
