I am the Church. You are the Church. We are the Church together.

All who follow Jesus, all around the world...

Yes, we're the Church together.

The Church is not a building. The Church is not a steeple.

The Church is not a resting place.

The Church is the people.

I am the Church. You are the Church. We are the Church together.

All who follow Jesus, all around the world...

Yes, we're the Church together.

Lyrics from a favorite children's Sunday School song

Dear Members of the Trinity family,

It has been three years since our family of faith has been able to gather together in person to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord on Easter Sunday. I am overjoyed that on Easter Sunday this year we can be together for this celebration of resurrection and new life. The service will include holy communion, dozens of beautiful lilies, an Easter cross, butterflies, inspiring music led by our choir, as well as the instrumental support from the Capital City Brass Quartet. While I wish that this celebration could take place in the Sanctuary, I realize that the most important thing is for us to be together for this most significant day in the life of the Church. The space is not important. It's the people that matter. The Church is not the building. The Church is the people. It will be my great joy and honor to share this Easter worship opportunity with you!

The schedule for Holy Week worship is as follows:

Mauudy Thursday - 6:15 pm in the Gym, also live-streamed

Good Friday - a recorded service will be live-streamed at 6:15 pm,
no in-person worship

Easter Vigil - 6:15 pm on Saturday in the Gym, also live-streamed

Easter Sunday - 10:00 am on Sunday in the Gym, also live-streamed

It is my hope and prayer that you will make plans to gather with our Trinity family for worship during Holy Week. My colleagues and I are eager to share this special time of worship with each of you. May God surround and fill you with comfort, peace, hope, and joy as we continue our Lenten journey, gather close to the cross on Good Friday, and celebrate the resurrection of our Lord on Easter Sunday morning.

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

LENT 2022 AT TRINITY

Weekly Wednesday Worship

The last Wednesday of the Lenten Season (April 6) at 6:15 pm Holden Evening Prayer with a meditation based on the book Good Enough: 40ish Devotions for a Life of Imperfection will be held in the Gym. This service will also be livestreamed.

Daily devotions

Daily devotions written by members and friends of Trinity will be emailed to the congregation at 6:15 each morning during the 40-day Lenten Season. Please call the Church Office if you would like to have your name added to this list.

Labyrinth

Throughout the Lenten season a labyrinth is available in the Multipurpose Room for the Trinity family and friends to use as part of a Lenten prayer and meditation practice. A labyrinth is an ancient walking meditation device used by Christians to induce or enhance a meditative state of mind. It is a spiritual tool which can clear the mind, calm anxieties, reduce stress, guide healing, enhance creativity, and lead to personal growth.

Lenten Prayer Cross

Throughout the Lenten season, a prayer cross is being used during Sunday worship services. In-person Sunday worshippers are invited to arrive in time to write down a prayer request on a provided note card. Worshippers will then place their prayer on the cross before worship. Everyone is encouraged to include one's name and cell number on the prayer card so that one might receive an uplifting text from the person who is offering the prayer. Upon leaving worship, worshippers will be asked to take a prayer off the cross (not your own), include the prayer request in your prayers the coming week, and let the person know you are praying for them by sending an encouraging text. Online worshippers may email their weekly prayer request to Patrick Preacher pdpriester@trinitylutheran.ws to be included in this meaningful Lenten discipline.

HOLY WEEK WORSHIP

Maundy Thursday - 6:15 pm in the Gym, also live-streamed

Good Friday - a recorded service will be live-streamed at 6:15 pm,

*The Easter service will be followed by a simple reception

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

On Labor Day weekend in 2021 I attended the Wild Goose Festival in Hot Springs, NC, a gathering of faithful people from around the country and throughout the world who are passionate about Jesus, social justice, diversity, and inclusion. This three-day gathering was a time to embrace and celebrate God's love for all people and a time to be fed, nourished, and refreshed in a community of kindred spirits.

The festival includes dozens of opportunities to gather for lectures, discussions, and shared learning. There are always new ideas that challenge my thinking and mindset. This festival was no different.

I reluctantly agreed to accompany my family to an afternoon worship experience being led by a drag queen. To be completely transparent, I did not want to attend. Up until that point my experience with drag queens was limited to the drag queens I had seen at the Red Party, an annual event in Greenville sponsored by Aid Upstate, and my limited exposure to RuPaul's Drag Race. My expectations were so low that I did not even bother to pull out my notebook and pen to take notes. I incorrectly assumed that the Lady Douché had little to teach me. I was very wrong.

I sat in the front row and tried to put on a brave, interested face. From the beginning the Lady Douché was funny, engaging, clever, and inviting. She slowly chipped away at my disinterest. But, it was her sermon that completely disarmed me. She preached the most beautiful, theologically astute, and profound sermon that I have ever heard on the story of Jesus and the woman at the well. I was mesmerized by her thoughtful and engaging message and kept wishing I had my pen and notebook to record her words.

I left the Wild Goose Festival eager to share the wit and wisdom of the Lady Douché with our Trinity family. I am delighted that the Lady Douché has accepted our invitation to present "Drag Me to Church" at Trinity on Thursday, May 12 at 7:00 pm in the Gym. This presentation is being funded by a generous grant from the Growing in God's Mission Fund of the South Carolina Synod of the ELCA. If attending a drag show is a stretch for you, if you are hesitant or uncomfortable about attending, I encourage you to set your fears aside, reach beyond your comfort zone, and make plans to join our Trinity family, queer friends in the community, and allies for this special performance. I am certain that you will be glad you came.

Peace, love, and joy,
Pastor Susan Crowell
