As disciples of Christ seeking peace and justice in the world, we welcome, affirm, and include all people into the fullness of God's love. We celebrate people of all races, cultures, ages, sexual orientations, gender identities, physical or mental abilities, socioeconomic statuses, appearances, family status and citizenship as equally loved and valued in the eyes of God and in this place. All are invited to join this community as we worship God, grow in faith, and strive to love and serve one another. All, without exception, are welcome in this place.

The Altar flowers are given to the Glory of God and in honor of all church staff and volunteers by Richard and Gail Moose.

CHRISTMAS PROCLAMATION

On this night we remember, that over two thousand years ago, long after God and created the heavens and the earth after God set the rainbow in the sky as a covenant after Abraham and Sarah received their promise, after Moses led God's people to freedom,
after the time Ruth an Judges, after the reign of King David seven hundred and fifty-two years after the founding of Rome in the forty-second year of the reign of Octavian Augustus:
God heard the cries of God's people,
and in great mercy and love,
God became one of us,
to share in our human joy and pain,
and to give us our salvation.
Today is the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
 O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
 come and behold him, born the king of angels:

Refrain

O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
 O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

The highest, most holy, light of light eternal, born of a virgin, a mortal he comes;
 Son of the Father now in flesh appearing! *Refrain

Sing choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
 Glory to God in the highest: *Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
 Jesus, to thee be glory giv'n!
 Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing: *Refrain

GREETING

Today Christ is born: Alleluia, alleluia! The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

HYMN OF PRAISE

Angels We Have Heard on High

#289

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains, and the mountains in reply, echoing their joyous strains.

Refrain

Gloria in excelsis Deo; Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong?
 What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heav'nly song? *Refrain

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
 come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn king. *Refrain

PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Loving God, even when Christmas is messy, when chaos reigns, when there is sickness and suffering and grief, when all is not as it should be, when relationships are broken and families are estranged, when the Christmas cookies have not been baked and the gifts still need to be wrapped and our homes are a happy holiday mess, even then, especially then, you come to us. You are born for us. Remind us that your specialty is shining light in dark, messy places. Bless our less than perfect lives with your more than perfect love and care and provision. This we pray on this most holy night; through your son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Please be seated

WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:2–7

A reading from Isaiah.

- ²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined.
- ³You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
- ⁴For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.
- ⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
- ⁶For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Protector, Champion of Peace.
- ⁷This authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne and realm of David.
Justice and righteousness will be established and upheld from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

*Thereafter, the congregation is invited to sing without introduction.*Psalm RefrainPsalm
Tone

- ¹Sing to the LORD | a new song;
sing to the LORD, | all the earth.
- ²Sing to the LORD, bless the name | of the LORD;
proclaim God's salvation from | day to day.
- ³Declare God's glory a- | mong the nations
and God's wonders a- | mong all peoples.
- ⁴For great is the LORD and greatly | to be praised,
more to be feared | than all gods. R
- ⁵As for all the gods of the nations, they | are but idols;
but you, O LORD, have | made the heavens.
- ⁶Majesty and magnificence are | in your presence;
power and splendor are in your | sanctuary.
- ⁷Ascribe to the LORD, you families | of the peoples,
ascribe to the LORD hon- | or and power.
- ⁸Ascribe to the LORD the honor due the | holy name;
bring offerings and enter the courts | of the LORD. R
- ⁹Worship the LORD in the beau- | ty of holiness;
tremble before the LORD, | all the earth.
- ¹⁰Tell it out among the nations: "The | LORD is king!
The one who made the world so firm that it cannot be moved will judge the

- ¹¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the | earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; let the field be joyful and all that | is therein.
- ¹²Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy at your com- | ing, O LORD,
for you come to | judge the earth.
- ¹³You will judge the | world with righteousness
and the peoples | with your truth. R

A reading from Titus.

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, ¹²training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, ¹³while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. ¹⁴It was Christ who was sacrificed for us, to redeem us from all unrighteousness and to cleanse a people to be Christ's own, eager to do what is right.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL PROCESSIONAL

Once in Royal David's City (verses 1 and 2)

#269

Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ, her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven who is God and Lord of all,
and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
with the poor and meek and lowly, lived on earth our Savior holy.

GOSPEL

Luke 2:1-20

The Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke, the second chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. ⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

¹⁰But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see — I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom God favors!" ¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

GOSPEL PROCESSIONAL

*Once in Royal David's City
(verse 4)*

#269

Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing by, we shall see him; but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high;
there his children gather round, bright like stars, with glory crowned.

And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love;
for that child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heav'n above;
and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.

Please be seated.

SERMON

Have A Very Merry (and Messy) Christmas!

Please stand as able.

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
 yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light.
 The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary, and, gathered all above while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond'ring love.

O Morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth, and praises sing to God the king, and peace to all the earth!

How silently, how silently the wondrous gift is giv'n!
 So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n.
 No ear may hear his coming; but, in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
 cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.
 We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
 oh, come to us, abide with us, our Lord Immanuel!

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

With wonder and thanksgiving for Christ's coming into the world, we pray for the church, the life of the earth, and the whole human family.

A brief silence.

Most Holy One, humble shepherds followed the call of angels to worship you that night. Accept the praises of your Church as we celebrate and remember your birth on earth this night. Warm our hearts with gift of your love. May Christ be born anew in your people this day and every day. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

Creator of the Stars, you are pleased to dwell with your creatures and the whole earth sings for joy this holy night. Renew the splendor of creation from the smallest and dimmest star to the widest of galaxies. Guide us to be wise stewards of your gifts for the sake of generations to come. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

God of Might, your authority is over the nations. Break the rod of oppression in every land and free all people from fear. Bring peace where there is war, compassion where there is suffering, and healing where there is disease. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

Loving God, you count each hair on our head just as you have ordered the skies. You cherish those who are most vulnerable. Surround infants and children with love, and bless those who care for them. Protect the rights of those who identify as female, watch over ones giving birth, and strengthen those who long for a child. Shelter refugee families and those who have no home. Attend the dying, and relieve any who are in pain, especially those we name now on our lips or silently in our hearts God of grace,

hear our prayer.

Great Comforter, your lovingkindness embraces absolutely everyone. Help any for whom this season is lonely or joyless. Comfort all who are experiencing distress of body or mind, missing loved ones, or grieving. Be with your queer children who face bigotry and ignorance at family gatherings. Guide us to share your boundless love with all who breathe the breath of life. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

Light Eternal, you welcome those who have died into the joyous light of glory. We give thanks for the saints of every time and place who have praised you with lives of faith and humility. Inspire us by their example to love you by serving others. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

Pondering the mystery of eternal love made flesh in Christ Jesus, we commend all for whom we pray to the mercy of God.

Amen.

PEACE

The peace of Christ is with you always.

And also with you.

Please share with one another a sign of Christ's peace.

Please be seated

OFFERING HYMN

What Child is This (verse 3)

#296

So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh; come peasant, king, to own him.
The King of kings salvation brings; let loving hearts enthrone him.
Raise, raise the song on high, the virgin sings her lullaby;
joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mary!

Let us pray. God of abundance, receive and bless these gifts we have offered.
Join our hearts with the song of the angels,
and gather us at your table of celebration.
Strengthen us to share with all the world
the abundance of your grace upon grace, poured out in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh.
Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.
In the wonder and mystery of the Word made flesh you have opened the eyes of faith to a new and radiant vision of your glory, that, beholding the God made visible, we may be drawn to love the God whom we cannot see.
And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One God of pow - er, God of might. Heav'n and earth are full of your glor - y. Ho - sa - na in the high - est. Blessed! Blessed is the one who comes Blessed! Blessed! in the name of God.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION

All, without exception, are welcome at the table of God's grace and love. Anyone preferring not to receive the wine may receive only the bread, completely trusting that the full benefit of communion — Christ's grace and forgiveness — may be found in either the bread or wine.

Worshipers will come forward to receive the bread and wine and then return to their seats to consume the elements.

MUSIC DURING DISTRIBUTION

Go Tell It on the Mountain

#290

Refrain

Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born!

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night, behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light. Refrain

The shepherds feared and trembled when, lo, above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth. Refrain

Down in a lonely manger the humble Christ was born;
and God sent us Salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain

ANTHEM

While By My Sheep
arr. John Leavitt

Adult Choir

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old, from angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold;
“Peace on the earth, good will to all, from heav’n’s all gracious king.”
The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come with peaceful wings unfurled, and still their heav’nly music floats o’er all the weary world.
Above its sad and lowly plains they bend on hov’ring wing, and ever o’er its babel sounds the blessed angels sing.

And you, beneath life’s crushing load, whose forms are bending low, who toil along the climbing way with painful steps and slow:
look now, for glad and golden hours come swiftly on the wing;
oh, rest beside the weary road and hear the angels sing!

For lo! The days are hast’ning on, by prophets seen of old, when with the ever circling years shall come the time foretold, when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling, and all the world give back the song which now the angels sing.

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan, earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.

Heaven cannot hold him, not earth sustain;
heav’n and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign;
in the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
the Lord God almighty, Jesus Christ.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wiseman I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him— give my heart.

Please stand as able

The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.
Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God our redeemer,
you have fed us at this table
with gifts of grace, truth, and life.
As you have gathered us in joy,
send us forth as messengers of your peace.
Make us shine with the good news of your glory,
born to us in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

We gather on this holy night to rejoice in the light that dispels the darkness.
We light candles as a sign of God's light, filling our lives with hope, joy, love, and peace.

CANDLE LIGHTING

*The acolytes give light to worshipers who pass it on.
The lighted candle is never tilted, but is always held upright when giving light to another.*

HYMN

Silent Night, Holy Night

#281

Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight; glories stream from heaven afar, heav'nly hosts sing, alleluia! Christ the Savior is born! Christ, the Savior is born!

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from your holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at your birth, Jesus, Lord, at your birth.

SENDING

BLESSING

May God, who gathers us in love, lead you in pathways of righteousness and peace.
May God, who knows us more deeply than we know ourselves, lead you in pathways of forgiveness and freedom.
May God, who fills us with good things, lead you in pathways of equity and justice.
The blessing of the holy Trinity, ✠ one God,
be upon you and remain with you forever.

Amen.

Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her king;
let ev'ry heart prepare him room and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and nature sing, and heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns! Let all their songs employ, while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow nor thorns infest the ground;
he comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found,
far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love, and wonders of his love, and wonders, wonders of his love.

DISMISSAL

May the light of Christ shine brightly in your hearts and homes this Christmas.
Go in peace. Share the gift of Jesus.
Thanks be to God.
