*You, darkness, of whom I am born -
I love you more than the flame that limits the world to the circle it illumines and excludes all the rest.
But the dark embraces everything:
shapes and shadows, creatures and me,
people, nations - just as they are.
It lets me imagine a great presence stirring beside me.
I believe in the night.*

A poem from Rilke's Book of Hours

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

If Christmas is the season of light, then Advent is the season of darkness. Advent is about longing, waiting, stillness, and silence. These four weeks leading up to the celebration of Christ's birth are about life in darkness. Unlike Christmas, Advent invites us into the darkness and reminds us that just as God is present in light, so God is present in darkness.

God is present in the unknowing, in the unfulfilled promises, in the doubt and the uncertainty, in the shadows, in the brokenness. God is in the places where there is no light, no brightness to guide us or illumine our path. God is present in the hard times and difficult days. Our God is God of both the light and the darkness.

The darkness reminds us that God has a habit of showing up in places and people we do not expect. The darkness brims with possibility. There is beauty and grace in darkness. In these days of Advent waiting, I am finding hope and strength in the darkness. I love the candlelight, but I also love the places where the light does not reach. I love the light of the fireplace flames, but I also love the places of darkness, the place of shadows. I love the stars in the night sky, but I also love the vast, silent darkness.

My hope and prayer for you during this Advent Season is that you will discover meaning in all parts of life - in life and death, in joy and sorrow, in light and darkness. God is with us - embracing us and sustaining us - in both light and darkness. Thanks be to God!

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

COUNCIL NOTES

At the November meeting of the Congregation Council, the council...

---noted that expenses for October were $577 above projections;

PASTOR CROWELL'S SABBATICAL LEAVE

After twenty-seven years of ministry at Trinity, the Executive Committee has approved a three-month sabbatical for Pastor Crowell that will take place in January, June, and July of 2023. During these months, Pastor Crowell will be stepping away from the daily demands of ministry at Trinity and will devote her time to rest, renewal, travel, family, and refreshment with the intent of returning to her position as Senior Pastor with renewed energy and passion for ministry. During this time, Trinity's pulpit will be filled on Sunday mornings by other staff members and pastoral guests. Please remember Pastor Crowell and her family in your prayers as she prepares for this intentional time of rest and renewal that will be a benefit to both Trinity and to her.

HOUSING RESOURCE CENTER A POTENTIAL NEW MINISTRY PARTNERSHIP AT TRINITY

The Congregation Council is exploring the potential of partnering with the City of Greenville and United Housing Connections to provide space on Trinity's campus for a Housing Resource Center that would benefit our homeless friends in the downtown community. The Housing Resource Center would provide a safe, warm place to rest, the opportunity for a hot shower, a simple meal, and access to services to move beyond homelessness. To learn more about this new opportunity, please make plans to attend one of the following information sessions that will be led by Lorain Crowl from United Housing Connections:

Sunday, November 27 after worship in the Multipurpose Room to include a simple lunch

Wednesday, November 30 at 2:00 pm in the Parlor

Monday, December 5 at 6:00 pm via Zoom

Please call or email the Church Office to register for one of these information sessions.

The Quilting Group typically meets in the Activities Building on Mondays at 9:30 am to make quilts which are distributed by Lutheran World Relief. Participants do not need to know how to sew in order to assemble quilts. Willing volunteers who can cut fabric, iron, thread a needle, or tie knots are welcome. Work is usually finished around noon. Participants can work as little or as long as they would like. There are also at-home sewing opportunities for those who cannot make it to the gatherings. The group will meet every Monday except on days when the Church Office is closed.

In December the group will meet December 5 and December 12. The group will not meet again until January 9. If you have any questions contact Sarah Weeks at weeks14@charter.net or 864-787-1160.

The Trinity Prayer Group will be praying from home during the month of December. If you have a prayer request please complete a prayer card during Sunday worship or email a request to Terry Morgan at tfmorgan101@gmail.com or Merry Mulcahy at marmulcahy@icloud.com.

We are currently reviewing our prayer ministry with hopes to increase its support of all the ministries of Trinity as well as individual prayer requests from our congregation. Please check for updates on the prayer ministry here in the Tidings.

Trinity will also be supporting AID Upstate's food pantry. Trinity will be collecting non-perishable food items and toiletries. Items needed are canned soups, instant grits and oatmeal, peanut butter crackers, small bags of flour and sugar, cooking oil, and condiments.

Items may be brought to the breezeway, Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm or to worship on Sunday mornings.

BOOK GROUP

The Trinity Book Group, which is open to all readers, meets on the third Thursday evening every other month to discuss books of all genres. The next meeting will be at 7:00 pm on Thursday, December 15 at the home of Zerle Hubbard, 9 Belgrave Close, Taylors, 29687. The group will discuss the book As the Wicked Watch by Tamron Hall. At this Christmas gathering, members are invited to bring an appetizer or dessert to share with the group, as well as a new, wrapped paperback to swap with group members. This is a very casual group, and new participants are welcome at any time. Email Deacon Amy Brown at arbrown@trinitylutheran.ws for more information.

CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

On Sunday, December 18 at 10:00 am worship in the Gym will include a congregational Christmas pageant that is interactive and intergenerational. Plan to join us in worship on this festive day!

NOURISHING NEIGHBORS

Trinity will host our neighbors at Towers East for Nourishing Neighbors, a monthly event held on the front lawn that includes a bagged lunch, fresh produce, pantry staples, and fellowship on Wednesday, December 14 from 12:30 to 1:30 pm. This is an opportunity to build relationships with our neighbors, make friends, and get to know each other in a relaxed and fun environment. QUEER AND JUSTICE MINISTRY

World AIDS Day Service. In collaboration with AID Upstate, Trinity's Queer-led Worship Service will gather for worship in the Gym on Thursday, December 1 at 6:30 pm in honor of World AIDS Day. This will be a special service to raise awareness of the AIDS pandemic caused by the spread of HIV infection and mourning those who have died of the disease. We will give thanks to God for the progress made in areas of treatment, prevention, and testing.

Love Wins is a monthly social group for adults of all ages. The December meeting of the Love Wins discussion group will center around the book "The Measure" by Nikki Erlick. This is an engaging novel of love and hope, chronicling how all moments, big and small, measure a life. Books are available at numerous retailers and also in e-reader format. Join the group on Thursday, December 8 at the home of Jaime Fivecoat at 6:30 pm. Please contact Angie McCormack (864-630-4026) or Jaime Fivecoat (864-630-0473) for the address. The hope is that participants will have engaged the book at some level before the meeting, but that is not a requirement to attend.

BLUE CHRISTMAS SERVICE

The Christmas season is full of fun and joy for so many, but for those who mourn the loss of beloved family and friends it can be a difficult time. For the second year, Trinity will hold a space for grief, mourning, and sadness during the holiday season. A Blue Christmas Service will take place at 6:30 pm on Thursday, December 22 in the Sanctuary. This will be a quiet candlelight service of prayer, song, and lament. Please contact Patrick Preacher at pdpreacher@trinitylutheran.ws if you would like to serve as a musician or one of the worship leaders for this special Christmas service.
