*Gratitude begins in our hearts and then dovetails into behavior.
It almost always makes you willing to be of service, which is where the joy resides.
It means that you are willing to stop being a jerk.
When you are aware of all that has been given to you,
in your lifetime and in the past few days,
it is hard not to be humbled, and pleased to give back.*
Anne Lamott

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

My grandmother (lovingly called “Mamagrاند” by my siblings and cousins) was a woman of gratitude and generosity. Her husband died suddenly when he was a young man leaving her to raise three little children on her own. She was an educator and taught at Little Mountain Elementary School for fifty years. For all my growing up I sat next to my Mamagrاند in worship on Sunday morning. She brought butterscotch candies and let me snuggle close to her throughout the service. She was the first to teach me about generosity.

Every Sunday she pulled out her checkbook to make her weekly offering to God’s work in the congregation that nurtured and blessed me. She was a joyous giver, a cheerful giver. She was thankful for her home, her family, her career as a teacher, thankful that she lived close enough to school and church to walk and never felt the need for a driver’s license. She believed that giving was the natural response to gratitude. Her weekly gifts often involved sacrifice, but she never seemed hesitant or burdened by giving. “God has given me so much. It’s my pleasure to give back,” she would say.

My grandmother is on my mind as we approach Consecration Sunday and the Celebration Lunch on Sunday, October 8. The day begins with worship at 10:00 am in the Sanctuary followed by a Celebration Lunch in the Gym. It is going to be a beautiful day of gratitude and generosity and will be even more meaningful if you are present. If you have not made reservations for this very special day, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible by reaching out to Donna Potts at 864-423-2599 or donna.millar@gmail.com. I look forward to sharing this day with each of you.

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell

MUSIC MINISTRY

ADULT CHOIR rehearses each Wednesday in the Choir Room on the second floor of the Pence Building from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm. Each Sunday the choir gathers at 9:30 am in the Choir Room for a brief rehearsal and warm-up. For 10:00 am worship the choir assembles in the balcony or around the piano in the Gym to support and strengthen congregational singing and to offer special choral music aimed at drawing our minds, emotions, and imaginations more deeply into God's word. Reformation will be celebrated on Sunday on October 29, with a festival service joined by the Capital City Brass Quintet. The choir rehearsal with CCBQ will be in the Sanctuary on Saturday, October 28, from 11:00 am to 12:00 noon.

HANDBELL CHOIR rehearses most Wednesdays from 6:00 to 6:45 pm in the Handbell Rehearsal Room on the second floor of the Pence Building. The two performing dates this fall are November 5 and December 17. If interested in joining the choir for the fall season, there is space for one more ringer. Contact Pastor Parham at jcparham@trinitylutheran.ws or 864-242-5702.

TRINITY'S INSTRUMENTALIST COMMUNITY

Enrichment of instrumental music is welcome in worship. If interested in sharing your instrumental skills in worship, please contact Pastor Parham at jcparham@trinitylutheran.ws or 864-242-5702.

PAGEANT ENSEMBLE 2023

Trinity instrumentalists, have you been looking for an excuse to pull out your dusty middle school or high school band/orchestra instrument after years of neglect? The perfect opportunity is coming up on December 17. This year is 8 years (minus the Covid years) of gathering all band and orchestral players (and friends!) into an ensemble that leads the Advent/Christmas carols for this service. Pastor Parham provides instrumental parts tailored for every instrument and skill level. If interested or just curious, please contact Pastor Parham at the phone number or email address above for more information.

GIVING TO TRINITY

Trinity is grateful for all the prayers, contributions, and displays of support from members, friends, and guests. Financial contributions can be placed in the offering plates during worship, mailed to the church, or given electronically by going to trinitylutheran.ws, by scanning the QR code, or texting TLGGIVE to 73256.

PRAYING FOR POSSIBILITIES

Praying for Possibilities is a new program at Trinity dedicated to praying for the ministries of the congregation. The written prayers highlight areas of the church where various ministries occur, specific programs, and members of the church staff. Members and friends of the congregation are invited to sign up for a specific week during the year when they are encouraged to pray through the prayers one time from home or while walking the grounds of the church or sitting in the Sanctuary. Prayers can be lifted up from home, while travelling, or at the church. Praying the prayers can be done at one time or spread out over the week. On the Sunday of the designated week, prayer volunteers are asked to pray for the worship service and the members in need of special love and care who are lifted up in the prayers during worship. A hard copy of the prayers is available along with an electronic copy. This new ministry requires a small amount of commitment with the possibility of tremendous blessing. To ask questions about the ministry or to sign up to participate, please reach out to Beth Bennett-Hill at bethbhnc@yahoo.com or 704-307-0521 or to Terry Morgan at tfmorgan101@gmail.com or 864-230-6252.
