Welcome to worship at Trinity, a place of love, grace, and belonging where all, without exception, are loved, honored, valued, affirmed, welcomed, and celebrated. If you are new to Trinity, we are thrilled to have you here. If you would like to know more about this congregation and our ministry please share your contact information with us by filling out a Connection Card which can be obtained from the pew racks or baskets. Thank you for your presence among us.

Contributions. Trinity is grateful for all the prayers, contributions, and displays of support from members, friends, and guests. Financial contributions can be placed in the offering plates during worship, mailed to the church, or given electronically by going to our website trinitylutheran.ws, by scanning the QR code, or texting TLCGIVE to 73256.

Worship Bags are available in the Narthex for children. Bags for preschoolers are tied with a white ribbon. Bags for elementary age children have no ribbon. After worship, used bags may be placed in the baskets next to the stands.

Children's Worship Activity. Accompanied by Child Protection trained adults, children are invited to leave worship after the children's sermon to go hear the scripture read in ways more appropriate for their age. Using lectionary stories heard in worship each Sunday, the children not only hear scripture, but enjoy a related activity such as a game, craft, or music. Children return to worship during the sharing of the peace and in time to participate in the celebration of Holy Communion.

Communion. In an effort to further embrace Trinity's mission of welcome, affirmation, and hospitality, both wine and grape juice are available. The addition of grape juice enables God's beloveds for whom alcohol is problematic to participate more fully. Grape juice is in the smaller section of the chalice.

Epiphany Prayer Intention. Paper stars containing various prayer intentions are available for worshippers to select an intention that resonates with them or to select an intention at random to see how God might work in their lives through this intention. Paper stars will be available for the first few weeks of January in the worship space on Sundays and in the Church Office during the week. Today stars can be found near the Sacristy and in the Narthex. Please choose to participate in Trinity's life together by selecting a prayer intention.

Nursery for infants and toddlers. A nursery hosted by a member of the Trinity staff, Beth Oswald, as well as a small group of rotating volunteers who have been trained in Trinity's Child Protection Policy is available each Sunday morning beginning at 9:45 am to care for infants and toddlers who would prefer enjoying play time instead of attending 10:00 am worship. The nursery is located on the first floor of the Pence Building. Please reach out to a greeter or usher if you need assistance.

Faith Formation for Children. The Education Committee, in collaboration with the pastoral and program staff, is excited to announce that beginning January 26 three classes will gather at 9:00 am on Sunday mornings in the Education Building. Classes will be available for pre-schoolers (who will be accompanied by a parent or caring adult), for children in K5 through Grade 2, and for children in Grade 3 through Grade 5. Teachers, volunteers, and participants are needed. Please reach out to Jeff Rehm at jarehm41@gmail.com with questions or to sign up to be a part of this program to encourage, teach, and lift up Trinity's youngest members.

Celebrating Faith Formation Sunday. With Children's Sunday Faith Formation resuming and a new series for the Adult Faith Formation class beginning on Sunday, January 26, it will be a Sunday not to be missed! In celebration of the many ways Christ forms this community in the faith for service to the world, a hot lunch will be served following worship. Mark your calendars for a day of learning, worship, and fellowship!

Adult Faith Formation: A new series will begin Sunday, January 26. Taught by Penny Bostain, Together by Grace: Introducing the Lutherans will explore foundations of Lutheranism, including theology and history, in ways that are informative and interactive. Participants may choose to purchase the book by searching the title, Together by Grace: Introducing the Lutherans on Amazon, but this is not required for full participation. A study guide will be provided.

Trinity Children and Youth will join together for lunch on Sunday, January 26. Following lunch, the groups will divide for "Exploring the Faith: Miracles of Jesus." Pastor Parham will lead the youth and Angie McCormack will be with the children. The event will end at 1:00 pm. For more information or questions, contact Angie McCormack at ahmccormack@trinitylutheran.ws or 864-630-4026.

Festival of Queer Books. Trinity will host Greenville's first ever Festival of Queer Books on Saturday, February 22 from 10:00 am to noon in the Activities Building. With public schools and libraries limiting access to books representing queer families, this is an important step in providing queer youth, children, and families access to books about characters and themes they can relate to. In collaboration with other LGBTQIA+ affirming organizations, the day will have something for everyone - a bounce house, a silent disco, read-alouds, and of course FREE BOOKS! Each family will leave with a selection of books about LGBTQIA+ and/or other marginalized peoples. The focus of the day is on children's picture books in an effort to make literacy accessible for all ages. Please contact Patrick Preacher at pdpreacher@trinitylutheran.ws if interested in being a part of this exciting event.

The Welcome Table. This month's meal will take place Wednesday, January 15 at 11:30 am in the Multipurpose Room. An RSVP is not required to attend. All are welcome and encouraged to come for lunch! If you would specifically like to volunteer, please reach out to Patrick Preacher via text at 864-483-2590.

The TLC History Reading Group will now meet at 11:30 am on the third Sunday of each month. The next meeting is on Sunday, January 19 in Rooms 12 and 13 at 11:30 am after worship. The group will discuss Patriots: The Men Who Started the American Revolution by A. J. Langgath. Newcomers are always welcome. Contact Bob Schirmer at rwschirmer@gmail.com or Don Todd at dk todd47@gmail.com for more information. Participation via Zoom will be available.

Trinity's Out to Lunch Bunch is open to all adults who would like to enjoy fellowship and a meal together after worship. The group will gather on Sunday, January 19 at Moe's BBQ, 109 W Stone Ave, Greenville. Please reach out to Angie McCormack at 864-630-4026 to reserve your space at lunch.

Youth Event. On Saturday, January 25, youth and families will travel to Moonshine Mountain in Hendersonville, NC for snow tubing. All youth must have one parent or guardian attending and carpooling is encouraged. Reservations have been secured for 1 hour and 45 minutes of tubing starting at 2:00 pm. The cost is $20.00.

Women's March. On Saturday, January 18, there will be a gathering in cities across the nation to march for women's rights in cooperation with the People's March on Washington DC. Greenville's march will take place at Falls Park. Those who are interested in participating in this event, but would like to do so in a group, may meet outside the Red Canopy Door at 9:00 am on Saturday, January 18 to walk together to Falls Park. More information about this event can be found at www.womensmarch.com Please contact Angie McCormack at ahmccormack@trinitylutheran.ws or 864-630-4026 if you plan to attend.

2025 Envelopes. The offering envelopes for this year are available this morning to those that requested envelopes. Please see Kay Cook in the Narthex to receive your envelopes and contact the Church Office with questions.

Love Wins is a group that meets monthly to discuss a book/podcast and to enjoy some social time together. The group will meet Thursday, January 16 at 6:30 pm at The Commons at Unity Park, 320 S Hudson Street, Greenville. The group will enjoy dinner and discuss the book Cranky, Beautiful Faith by Nadia Bolz-Weber. Contact Angie McCormack at 864-630-4026 or ahmccormack@trinitylutheran.ws for more information or to sign up for this event.
